The placements with  denote that if a school can host you for the Professional Development days in the week prior to the school year starting, then you will be able to do 2 days in that week starting 15 Jan and you will do 1 day less in the final week which takes into account the public holiday on 26 January. If a particular school cannot host you for the Professional Development days, then you will start your placement in the week of 22 January and will need to do a make up day on the Monday after the placement concludes. We will advise you when your placement is released if the school can host you for any PD days.

The total number of days of your placement is written above in the shaded block section.

Please note: scheduled placement day/s missed due to public holiday/s must be completed as make up day/s.
