FACILITIES MANAGEMENT

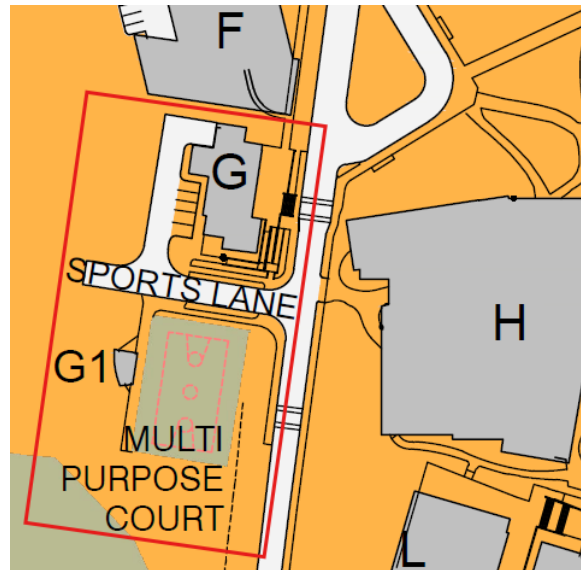

Project Commencement – Ipswich Campus G Block Demolition

In preparation for the construction of the Ipswich Health Building, demolition of G Block and the multi-purpose court will commence from Monday, 2 June 2025. Subsequent phases of the project will follow later in the year with updates shared as available.

While no major disruptions are expected, Sports Lane will be permanently closed as part of the project. Access to the playing field will be via University Drive as directed by signage.

Various safety measures will be in place for the duration of the project, including reduced speed limits, so please observe all signage, fencing and instructions in the area for the duration of the works. Additional caution should be exercised when in the area.

Facilities Management appreciates your cooperation during this important campus development. Indicative map of impacted area and building designs are included below for information (subject to change).
