NEWSLETTER OF THE RESIDENTIAL COLLEGES OF THE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF SOUTHERN QUEENSLAND

No. 145

Friday, 20 July 1990

CONCANNON COLLEGE RACE DAY

This Saturday, July 21 (11.00am - 5.00pm) Concannon College will be conducting a Race Day at Clifford Park Race-course, Toowoomba. An invitation to the occasion is extended to the residents of all Colleges. The cost of this occasion is $15.00 per person and includes admission to the Race-course, a hot carvery lunch with a glass of Chardonnay and tea and coffee. A full bar service will also be available.

MID-SEMESTER VACATION ACCOMMODATION

Applications for the forthcoming mid-semester vacation (18 August - 26 August) are now available at the Warden's Office.

All students (including overseas students) requiring college accommodation during this mid-semester recess must submit an application along with payment to the Warden's Office by Monday, 23 July 1990.

Please note that there is a heavy demand on College accommodation by external students during this period. As such, if residents have not submitted an application by Monday, 23 July, it will be assumed that they are not requiring their room for the duration of the vacation.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION PROGRAMME

The first two of a series of presentations on family related issues were delivered on 10th and 17th July, 1990. Both Mr Ian Goldsmith and Mr Chris Lennings delivered interesting and informative presentations. The remaining presentations to be delivered are as follows:

Tuesday, July 24 The Abused Child
Tuesday, July 31 Surviving Violet Families
Tuesday, August 7 The Caring Community

Interested residents are invited to attend.
