SYNOPSIS
This course provides the framework to assist you in understanding the processes involved in book production - commissioning/acquisition, designing, producing and marketing/promoting books. The course aims to provide you with the knowledge and skills to prepare a publishing proposal, negotiate a contract/letter of agreement, cost the book to ensure that the project is financially viable, work with design and production personnel and liaise with relevant sales and marketing personnel in the development of appropriate marketing strategies to promote the book. Focus will be on the problem-solving and decision-making processes required at each of the editorial, design, production and marketing stages.

OBJECTIVES
On successful completion of this course students should be able to:

1. demonstrate knowledge of the processes involved in evaluating and commissioning a book for publication, the preparation of a publishing proposal and the processes involved in negotiating with authors and the preparation of letters of agreement and contracts;
2. demonstrate knowledge of the book production process, the interdependencies that exist between the editorial, design and manufacturing stages and the people involved in producing books;
3. provide evidence of the ability to prepare briefs and specifications for designers, illustrators and printers;
4. provide evidence of the ability to prepare a profit and loss statement to calculate net revenue, gross profit and net profit for a specific title;
5. provide evidence of the ability to prepare a publishing schedule;
6. demonstrate knowledge of current strategies that are used to market and promote books and provide evidence of the ability to prepare a basic marketing/book promotion plan.

NOTES
1. This assessment item relates to Objective 1.
2. This assessment item relates to Objectives 3, 4 & 5.
3. This assessment item relates to Objectives 2 & 6.

IMPORTANT ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

1. Attendance requirements:
   There are no attendance requirements for this external course. However, it is the student's responsibility to study all material provided to them or required to be accessed by them to maximise their chance of meeting the objectives of the course and to be informed of course-related activities and administration.

2. Requirements for students to complete each assessment item satisfactorily:
   To successfully complete an individual assessment item, a student must achieve at least 50% of the marks or a grade of at least C-. This statement must be read in conjunction with Statement 4 below.

3. Penalties for late submission of required work:
   DEADLINES - EXTENSIONS WILL NOT BE GRANTED ON ANY GROUNDS. In fully documented cases of extreme medical disability, other production assignments of equivalent value will be set, ON CONDITION THAT the student fully informs the Examiner of such a need at the earliest convenient time.

4. Requirements for student to be awarded a passing grade in the course:
   To be assured of a passing grade, students must demonstrate, via the summative assessment items, that they have achieved the required minimum standards in relation to the objectives of the course by obtaining at least 50% of the total weighted marks for all summative assessment.

5. Method used to combine assessment results to attain final grade:
   The final grades for students will be assigned on the basis of the aggregate of the weighted marks / grades obtained for each of the summative assessment items in the course.

6. Examination information:
   There is no exam for this course.

7. Examination period when Deferred/Supplementary examinations will be held:
Given the details under (6) above, there are no deferred exams for this course. However, if any deferred/makeup work is granted, it would have to be submitted by a date set by the examiner.

8 University Regulations:
Students should read USQ Regulations 5.1 Definitions, 5.6 Assessment, and 5.10 Academic Misconduct for further information and to avoid actions which might contravene University Regulations. These regulations can be found at the URL http://www.usq.edu.au/corporateservices/calendar/part5.htm

ASSESSMENT NOTES

9 (a) The due date for an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the USQ. The onus is on the student to provide proof of the despatch date, if requested by the Examiner. (b) Students must retain a copy of each item submitted for assessment. This must be despatched to USQ within 24 hours if requested by the Examiner. (c) In accordance with University’s Assignment Extension Policy (Regulation 5.6.1), the examiner of a course may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances such as documented ill-health. (d) In the event that a due date for an assignment falls on a local public holiday in their area, such as a Show holiday, the due date for the assignment will be the next day. Students are to note on the assignment cover the date of the public holiday for the examiner’s convenience. (e) Students who do not have regular access to postal services or who are otherwise disadvantaged by these regulations may be given special consideration. They should contact the examiner of the course to negotiate such special arrangements. (f) Students who have undertaken all of the required assessments in the course but who have failed to meet some of the specified objectives of the course within the normally prescribed time may be awarded the temporary grade: IM (Incomplete-Makeup). An IM grade will only be awarded when, in the opinion of the examiner, a student will be able to achieve the remaining objectives of the course after a period of non-directed personal study. (g) Students who, for medical, family/personal, or employment-related reasons, are unable to complete an assignment or sit for an examination at the scheduled time, may apply to defer an assessment in the course. Such a request must be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation. One of the following temporary grades may be awarded: IDS (Incomplete - Deferred Examination; IDM (Incomplete Deferred Make-up); IDB (Incomplete - Both Deferred Examination and Deferred Make-up).

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

1 Students are expected to demonstrate up-to-date knowledge of trends in publishing and to use current examples when required.

2 Projection of a professional image is essential for this course. Students are required to demonstrate a high degree of care in planning and execution of assignments and in discussion groups.
